Reason; In the science fiction methodology that this book envisages, the well known inter-planetary based professor has gathered around him a very well balanced and professionally adept group of interplanetary deep space personnel. These well trained outer space personnel are drawn up from their respective space stations including Earth and Uranus -- Forward space research stations. The mission; Is to make this select group of inter-planetary humans aware about the proper working and availability of knowledge pertaining to -- Extrasensory Perception. They must be groomed within a very short time and be prepared to accept this extraordinary method of Human Inherent values. It is the professors duty to teach and train this interplanetary deep space personnel group. They in turn, must listen and deliberate to the professors lectures.
