

The Indie Authors Guide to: Building a Great Book

Indie authors struggle every day with formatting their books for both digital and print. This handy pocket guide is meant to walk you through, step-by-step, to creating the most attractive, easy to read book possible. Stop wasting your time and smashing your head on your desk in frustration. Balding authors with permanent red spots make us all look crazy. Your answers are inside these pages. Its everything you need to know about self-publishing your book. Its broken into six easy sections: Branding Yourself, Formatting Your Manuscript, Building a Digital Cover, Final Checks, Business Considerations, If Your Book is a Print Version. Each of those sections contains a wealth of information. There's no babbling here. You need short, straight, and to the point. Why waste time reading words you don't need to? Help yourself and grab a copy today. There's even a look inside preview where you can see that table of contents and each section within. Go take a look for free!
